

Lucien, Stirling & Gray Advisory Group Ranks Number One in Their Category
After Being Honored as a “Best Place to Work in Central Texas” for the Seventh Consecutive Year

AUSTIN, Texas (June 24, 2016) – Austin-based wealth management firm Lucien, Stirling & Gray Advisory Group, Inc., was named number one in the “Best Places to Work in Central Texas” contest for the micro category of businesses by the Austin Business Journal. This is the seventh year in a row the firm has been recognized as a “Best Place to Work” and the first year the firm has been ranked in the number one position. Winners were highlighted in a special section of the Austin Business Journal and recognized at a luncheon on June 24 at the Hyatt Regency Austin.

“As a fiduciary, everything about our success hinges on building a deep and lasting sense of trust with our clients,” says Thomas G. Twombly, President of Lucien, Stirling & Gray Advisory Group, Inc. “I believe that same sense of trust and confidence should permeate every relationship in this firm, so I’m extremely proud of what this series of awards says about our corporate culture.”

Lucien, Stirling & Gray Advisory Group, Inc. is one of 75 businesses to be inducted into the 2016 Class under four categories: micro, small, medium and large businesses. Companies were ranked based upon employee response rates and confidential answers to an extensive survey that addressed six key areas: Communication & Resources, Individual Needs, Manager Effectiveness, Personal Engagement, Team Dynamics, and Trust in Leadership. The firm scored 100% in the areas of manager effectiveness and trust in leadership. The team at Lucien, Stirling & Gray was included in the micro category (10-20 employees) and ranked number two in their category last year.

The Lucien, Stirling & Gray Advisory Group culture is focused on core values of teamwork, integrity, balance, excellence and enjoyment.

Twombly is committed to nurturing a workplace that enables employees to focus on their unique strengths and abilities, while working in a close-knit team environment. “I’m very fortunate to be surrounded by people I genuinely like and respect that have been together for a long time. It’s a pleasure to see how effectively important things get done, and it’s great to enjoy some fun in the process!”
